

How Much Wood Could a Woodchuck Chuck?

.....

by Danny Adlerman and friends

Make your own tongue twister using the words below, or find your own compound word!

Example: How much straw could a strawberry bury if a strawberry could bury straw?

As much straw as a strawberry could if a strawberry could bury straw.

rainbow
eggshell

baseball
birdhouse

milkshake
sunshine

bluebird
firefly

butterfly
cupcake

How much _____ could a _____ if a _____ could _____?

As much _____ as a _____ could if a _____ could _____.

In the box below, illustrate your rhyme like the artists did in the book!