

Long hot July; Short hot Adlerman newsletter!

This is an extremely shortened edition of your Adlerman monthly newsletter to let you know what's up: We will return with our usual delightfully witty and playful banter next month - something to look forward to!

At long last, SONGS FOR AMERICA'S CHILDREN is here! Hardcover and softcover are available at the following locations:

- 1) The Town Bookstore of both Westfield & Maplewood, NJ.
- 2) The Open Book of Westhampton, NY
- 3) The Brass Lantern in Metuchen, NJ
- 4) Variety Village in Metuchen (pb only)
- 5) Barnes & Noble/North Brunswick, NJ
- 6) Barnes & Noble/Brick, NJ
- 7) Tommy's Cards & Comics, Metuchen (pb only)

There will be a GREAT many more to come, we promise - books just came in a week ago and we have been busy filling backorders before hitting the road. Most of these stores were nice enough to have purchased the books from us before we even took stock, so please be conscientious and support them, especially the indies! As more places have it, rest assured we will let you know.

Meanwhile, you can also of course get it at our website, specifically at Songs For Americas Children . Credit cards are accepted there, we'll be happy to autograph the books at no further charge. You will also find a clip of the title song, which, once mixed, will be available at our site in full as a free download - our way of thanking all of you for your continued support.

We will be covered in the Home News & Tribune here in central Jersey, quite possibly on WNBC's Today in New York (we'll keep you posted!), we WILL be on News12 New Jersey on August 19th, and we will also be appearing on XM Satellite Radio's children's station (Channel 116) in late August.

Appearances? We'll be all over the place between late August and September, including The Town Bookstores in both Maplewood & Westfield, Barnes & Noble in both Freehold and North Brunswick (Freehold WILL have the books by then!), The Brass Lantern in Metuchen, ALL in support of SONGS FOR AMERICA...as well as other regularly scheduled appearances such as the Brooklyn Public Library August 29th at the Flatlands Branch) and The Franklin Township Library (August 22nd).

Kidlings: They are all great, thank you very much. Summer is an agreeable time of year for the older two; Maxx has now learned to destroy our lives by remote. You know what? We love him anyway.

Folks, have a terrific few weeks. Remember while you're out enjoying the summer how many people have so much less than do we.

Site of the month: XM Radio . Because any place willing to promote us for free can't be all that bad now can they?

Rock and roll closer: Elton John said way back in '73 in a song ironically enough entitled This Song Has No Title: "And each day I learn just a little but more...If we're all going somewhere let's get there soon..." (excepted).

Peace, love, and happy August.

PS: A VERY sincere apology for anyone who asked to be deleted from our mailing list - we lost our address book last week, and although we could retrieve the addresses, we could NOT retrieve any notes such as who to leave off the list (there's only 12 of you anyway!).

If you received this in error or wish to be deleted from the database, please just tell us and we'll try not to let it again. We take it seriously.
