

Mid-Winter Newsletter

So you say you have the mid-winter blahs, hey? Well, blah no more! It's newsletter time!

This month, we shall briefly tell you what we're up to, and then touch upon the family.

First off, Kim is almost finished with the art for Rock A Bye Baby! No one could be happier about that than Kim, of course, but to celebrate, we thought we'd give you a sneak preview of the art. Click HERE to check it out! Further, new updates and improvements ARE being added to the site, and while there is actually new content up there for your enjoyment, we will wait until next month to provide links.

Next, Danny is pleased to announce he is working on the last song now for the new album (rock and roll this time!) from The BAR, still tentatively titled STRIKING WHILE THE IRONY IS HOT! It will be available somewhere around summer time...right here at our Shopping Cart. You'll also be able to find it at JIM BABJAK'S newly revised site, as well as at The Grip Weeds page, as Jimmy and Kurt were...instrumental in the making of this album (sorry about that one)! In fact, for those not in the know, The BAR stands for Babjak/Adlerman/Reil...BAR. Get it? We knew you would!

Touching briefly on Songs For America's Children, the folks at World Hunger Year tell us that between what they have raised and what we have forwarded them, they have received over $15,000 for teaching hungry people to feed themselves...we offer a hearty huzzah to all of you who helped, and who continue to do so.

Well, we're off! Last week saw us in South Carolina; next month we're touring in but Michigan and Western New York, too, reaching out to teachers and kids alike in new and exciting places in the nation...OK, we admit, neither S. Carolina NOR Michigan are actually new, but they're new to US, so there you have it. See how we are?

Newsflash! Looking for an "800" number to purchase One Size Fits All? Try 1-800-BUY-MY-CD! It's a toll free line to CDBaby, and they even take credit cards. You can not only find our CD there, but some other really excellent independant musical choices for kids AND adults, such as The Tomato Collection, Jim Babjak's Buzzed Meg, and the fine music of The Grip Weeds!

And now, for your personal perusal:

Rachelle, now beginning the end of her 5th grade experience, is continuing to excel in all ways. Her cello, to be specific, is really starting to sound nice (!) and she is really learning about humor at many different levels, too...she's really quite amusing! She also just brought home stellar report card, and has again made the honor roll. We're pleased, to say the least!

Joshua: He is now about 20 minutes away from a third stripe on his green belt in Tae Kwan Do! He is still excited to be doing it, and we are excited to sponsor him in this affirming endeavor. Viva!

Maxx: He's standing next to us right now, whipping a bagel. Yes, you read it right. We don't believe anything further need be said on the topic; obviously, if he's well enough to beat upon a poor defenseless bagel, he's doing quite well. He is a true master at alternative Means of Communication. If any of you think that statement is suspect, come around here after he's eaten Danny's chili and judge for yourselves.

Bowling: Out of nine teams, we're right in the middle. Technically fourth place, thanks to the team that didn't show up this week (seriously, thank you)!

So, who got flooded after the torrential rains came down upon two feet of snow last week? Three guesses who. If you said us, give yourselves a cookie! However, since we fairly enjoy working out of a moist and smelly basement, we're OK.

Site of the month: The Good, Clean Funnies List Home Page. You can subscribe to GCFL from this link, have it sent to your palm pilot (did we just say that?) OR just check out some good clean funnies at their archive. For free! What more need be said?

Rock and roll closer: We know we can be deep, but sometimes, you just gotta say...well, what Sheryl Crow said: "All I wanna do is have some fun - I've got a feeling I'm not the only one".

Peace, happy sun-coming-up-slightly-later-every-evening, and we'll talk to you soon!

- the Adlermans
